

BLACK DOG INSURANCE GROUP'S PRIVACY STATEMENT

Black Dog Insurance Group (BDI) is committed to protecting the confidentiality and security of your personal information. We want you to know how we collect, use and protect this important information.

Why We Need Personal Information From You

Personal information that we collect about you includes your name, address, age, social security number, financial, health, employment, hobbies and similar matters. We will maintain physical and electronic safeguards to protect that information.

Examples Of Sources We Use To Collect Personal Information

Most of the information we collect about you comes from you directly or on a completed application form.

How We Use And Disclose Your Personal Information

We limit collection and use of personal information to the extent required to issue and service your policy or claim. We will not share personal information outside of BDI for any purpose other than the underwriting or administration of your policy or for marketing additional BDI products. We may disclose your personal information if required by law, a government agency or court order.

How We Protect Your Personal Information

We will protect all of your personal information and we will restrict access to your personal information by maintaining physical, electronic and procedural safeguards. We will restrict access to your personal information and only allow disclosures to persons who must use it to provide insurance products and services to you.

Above all, we value your trust and confidence in our ability to manage and protect your important personal information. You have the right to request a copy of our privacy statement at any time and access and seek correction or your information. If you have any questions about accessing or correcting your information, please direct them to the address below.
